

Hamilton Burris

1307 Palma Hill Ln | Austin, Tx 78000 | ham_burr@gmail.com | (512) 000-0000

Objective	Employment as an entry-level medical assistant
Education	Texas A&M University-College Station GPA: 3.53/4.0 Biochemistry on a pre-med track Bachelor of Agriculture and Life Sciences degree expected in May 2024 Related Courses: Psychology, General Chemistry, Organic Chemistry, Anatomy, Neuroscience and Religion, Biomedical Explorations through Narrative, Biology, EMT-certified.
Skills	Knowledgeable of medical preparation. Efficient in establishing a patient-doctor relationship. Attentive to details. Understanding of basic medical issues and care. Skilled in computer operating systems in front desk surgery centers.
Experience
04/16-12/17	Volunteer Clerical Assistant Baylor Scott & White Health – Round Rock, TX <ul style="list-style-type: none">Completed clerical duties and tasks for clinic administration such as prepping patients for procedures, checking them in and directing patients to desired areas.
02/18-06/19	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Organized paperwork for data entry. Community Health Worker Texas A&M – College Station, TX <ul style="list-style-type: none">Educated people on all three COVID vaccines.Administered the vaccine.Provided navigation to where the vaccine may be administered.
06/19-08/21	Emergency Medical Technician St. Joseph Health Center – Bryan, TX <ul style="list-style-type: none">Transported and cared for patients.Performed level of certification medical actions such as CPR and administration of medication.
09/21-Current	Pharmacist CVS – Austin, TX <ul style="list-style-type: none">Prescribed and organized designated medications.
Honors and Activities	Recipient of Medical Scholar Award Member of AED Society 67+ Volunteer Hours Member of Biochemistry Honors Society