

Daniel J. Penders

EXPERIENCED FRONT-END DEVELOPER
COMMITTED TO INNOVATION

PROFILE

Goal-oriented software engineer with experience in deploying multiple, self-made web applications, who values organization, attention to detail, and problem solving in their programming skills.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Merrick Pharmaceuticals

Front-End Web Development and Graphic Design

- Designed and developed pharmaceutical product sites for Zocor.com, Aggrastat.com, Fosamax.com and Merrick's iCommunications Intranet site.
- Created process to automate conversion of medical documents for web use.
- Involved in the planning, design and implementation stages of projects while working in conjunction with PMs, Medical/Legal boards
- Adhered to guidelines set forth by the FDA. HTML, DHTML, Interwoven, and TeamSite.

Rosetta Marketing

Lead Front End Developer

- Developer on websites for Wyndham Hotels project: Wingate, Hawthorne, Days Inn, Super 8, Travelodge, Microtel and Knights Inn.
- Designer and developer of Uloric.com website.
- Use HTML5, CSS3, jQuery and Photoshop.

Syneos Health GSW

Front End Developer

- Bootstrap, Node.js, GitLabs, HTML5, CSS3, Photoshop and jQuery.
- Pharma projects include Mitsubishi Radicava, Endo Xiaflex, Shire Vyvanse and Mydayis.
- Newtown, PA. Contract with Mondo, 8/18 – present

EDUCATION

BACHELOR OF COMPUTER SCIENCE

Texas International University
Houston, TX
2016 to 2020

BACHELOR OF APPLIED SCIENCE

Software Development
Austin Community College
Austin, TX
2013-2014

CERTIFICATIONS

MongoDB
W3Schools.com

React Certification
LinkedIn Learning

SKILLS

JavaScript
HTML/CSS/Bootstrap
Rest APIs
Relational databases with Oracle
MongoDB
Version control with Git
Work independently or in a team

TOOLS DEVELOPED

WebNotes: web application created using MERN stack in which users create and share with one another HTML formatted notes online.

PDF-Splitter: simple GUI tool for splitting PDF files by page ranges and/or merging two PDF files

(continue with more detail if possible)